

Dr. Robert Berland

Education:

University of Minnesota, B.A. 1957

University of Minnesota, B.S. 1959 – – M.D. 1961

Long Island Jewish Hospital, New York City, Intern July 1961 through June 1962

Long Island Jewish Hospital Medical Resident July 1962 through June 1963.

Mt. Sinai Hospital, New York City, Neurology Resident July 1963 through May 1966

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Private Practice, Hartford, and Manchester from 1968 to present

1990 – Present – Director, Neurology Clinic at Bergdorf Center, Hartford, CT, an affiliate of Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center.

1990 – Present – Director, Neurology Clinic at Bergdorf Center, Hartford, CT, an affiliate of Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center.

U.S. Army, Chief of Neurology, Ft. Polk Hospital, Louisiana June 1966 thru April 1968

BOARD CERTIFICATION:

Board Certified in Neurology by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, December 1968

MEMBERSHIPS:

Member of the American Academy of Neurology January 1969

Connecticut Neurological Association

Hartford, County Medical Association

Hartford, County Medical Society

American Heart Association and Stroke Fellow October 1978

RESEARCH:

1970's – Investigator (L) Dopa for Parkinson Disease 1ND#

1977 – Investigator Medical evaluation for new migraine drug – Hartford Research Group
Collaborator – Estrogen Stroke Study at Yale – Lawrence Brass ongoing Study.

1990's – Parke Davis – Study of Cognex for Alzheimer's Disease.

1990's – Clinical Investigator – study of Felbitol for epilepsy until removed from the market.